

On February 24th, 2017 «FOREIGN LANGUAGES SPEECH CONTEST» was held in Pedagogical Institute. 12 students of 1-4 courses of «Primary education», «Preschool education», «Design», «Fine art» specialties took part in it.

The jury was represented by the lecturers of Foreign Languages and Methodology department and master students of «Primary education» specialty. The process of winners' selection was held according to the following criteria: mastering of the topic; the ability to analyze the offered problematic; independence and originality of the expressed thoughts; artistic expression and literacy of the speech. The event was organized and conducted by Foreign Languages and Methodology department (moderators: O.V. Kotenko, the Head of Foreign Languages and Methodology department, PhD in Pedagogical Sciences, associate professor; Y.V. Rudnik, the lecturer of Foreign Languages and Methodology department).

Winners:

Gran Prix – Vira Hryshchenko (DOb-1-13-4.0d), speech topic: «The dream we haven't dared to dream».

1st place – Yulianna Kolesnikova (DZb-1-16-4.0d), speech topic: «Subcultures in the modern world».

2nd place – Oleksandra Hrechana (OMb-1-16-4.0d), speech topic: «Technology-human interaction».

2nd place – Kateryna Savchuk (DZb-1-16-4.0d), speech topic: «The role of pop art in the world».

3rd place – Diana Kandalian (DOb-3-14-4.0d), speech topic: «If you want to change the world, start with yourself»

3rd place – Mariia Semicheva (POb-2-14-4.0d), speech topic: «Die Wichtigkeit des Studiums der Fremdsprache für die Selbstentwicklung der Persönlichkeit».

The winners and nominees of the contest received from organizers certificates and vouchers with encouraging number of points that can be activated in the assessment process of academic performance in the course of foreign language disciplines.

We thank all the participants for creativity, originality of performances and positive atmosphere!

