

English tour "Masterpieces of World Art and Culture" took place on the 30th of November 2016 in the framework of studying themes «Visiting museums. Kinds of museums», «World famous museums», «The role of excursions in the children's development» in Practical course of English. Students from group PEb-1-13-2.0d and PEb-2-13-2.0d (III course, bachelor degree stream, speciality "Primary education"), with the lecturers of Foreign languages and methodology department, Yuliia Labunets and Pluzhnik Irina visited National Museum of art named after Bogdan and Varvara Khanenko.

During the English tour, students had the opportunity to get acquainted with the Museum collection exposition of European and Byzantine icons, features a dimension of beauty in European art, Italian Renaissance and Flemish Baroque.

This tour continued the series of Foreign languages and methodology department activities aimed for improving the level of students` foreign language competence, broadening their worldview, development of aesthetic taste and the ability to analyze works of art, interpret them in a foreign language.