

On April 24, 2018, the senior lecture of Foreign Languages and Methodology Department Loboda O.V. hold a practical class of the discipline "Foreign language (English)" for the 1st year students of the specialty "Fine Arts" in Kyiv PinchukArtCenter. The students were suggested an English-language excursion "Exhibition of shortlisted artists for the PinchukArtCenterPrize - 2018" (PinchukArtCentrePrize nominees exhibition - 2018).

The purpose of the tour – to involve students in the English-speaking environment, to improve their communicative skills, to form critical thinking on the example of the new generation of artists within the framework of studying the themes: «A picture is a poem without words», "How to become a professional", "How to realize your creative potential", together with attended the visiting tour at the Kyiv Pinchuk Art Center.