

Students of the 2 and 4 courses of educational programme for specialties «Elementary Education» attended the seminar-practicum «Second Language Acquisition. Theory and Practice» on the 26th of September, 2017.

The moderator of the event, Tetiana Holovatenko, the lecturer of the Foreign Languages and Methodology Department, modeled conditions of the second language acquisition. The seminar took a form of a live interaction within three groups of students who were learning imaginative the Czech, German and Bulgarian languages.

Practical and reflexive approaches helped students to learn the main ways of the second language acquisition.