

Outside practical class on “Contemporary English with practice” for second and third-year forms of specialty 023 “Fine art”

On November 12, 2019, an outside practical class on “Contemporary English with practice” was held for second and third-year forms students of specialty 023 “Fine art” at the Mystetsky Arsenal. Excursion called “OVERCOMING GRAVITY. Paraska Plytka-Horytsvit”. During the excursion students were able to get acquainted with the life and work of an extraordinary woman Paraska Plytka-Horytsvit – painter, folklorist, ethnographer, philosopher and photographer. The exhibition Overcoming Gravity is a journey through the world of spiritual images, fairy-tale texts, ethnographic notes, fictional landscape and documentary photographs.

Moderator: Olga Loboda, senior lecture of the Department of Foreign Languages and Methodologies, Pedagogical Institute.