

International Skype-lecture "CLIL in Education"

---

On March 17, 2020, a Skype lecture on "CLIL in Education" was delivered by professor Isaac Papadopoulos, European University of Cyprus.

The lecture was attended by more than 60 students of the first (Bachelor's) and the second (Master's) educational levels of specialties 013 "Primary Education" and 012 "Preschool Education" of the Pedagogical Institute of Borys Grinchenko Kyiv University.

During the lecture, the features of the technology of content and language integrated learning were discussed, European policy of implementing CLIL was presented, and the specifics of teacher training to using CLIL technology in the educational process were clarified. In addition, professor Isaac Papadopoulos presented the experience of implementing the project "Learning in the Traces of Greek Culture: a CLIL Project for EFL Learners" in Greece and his own book "Sophronius and Helen in the Traces of Greek Culture. Thematics Units for Foreign Language Learners", built on the CLIL technology.

Moderator of the event: Holovatenko Tetiana, lecturer of the Department of Foreign Languages and Methodologies at Pedagogical Institute.